Arts Access Victoria is proudly supported by

Capturing the City brings together young Deaf and Disabled artists from schools and TAFEs across Melbourne.

The workshops are held at SIGNAL on Flinders walk. This year we partnered with Sticky Institute to create Zines about the things that bring us joy.

This zine was created in the Capturing the City Program. Students from Ashwood School, Victoria University Polytechnic's Western Futures and Victoria University Polytechnic's Transition Education Program contributed to this zine.

Capturing the City and Zine are supported by the Victorian Government through Engage! and in partnership with
